

KK COMPUTERS - OFFICIAL WEBSITE SUBMISSION

Overview

KK Computers is a leading IT training and development institute that focuses on digital literacy, practical skills, and youth empowerment. This website is built to showcase their work, training modules, and tech events like Hack the Web.

1. Features of the Website

- Responsive design (mobile & desktop)
- Homepage with mission, services, and highlights
- Services: IT training, certifications, software development
- Events page featuring Hack the Web contest
- Contact section with form and WhatsApp group link

2. Technologies Used

- HTML5, CSS3, Tailwind CSS
- GitHub for version control
- Optional hosting via Netlify or GitHub Pages

3. Project Repository & Live Link

- GitHub Repo: [your-link-here]
- Live Preview: [your-live-site-link]

4. Note

All text content, design ideas, and images have been created or shared under the event guidelines. The logo/banner is attached above.